Dear Alan:

Thank you for your letter of 14 March and our chat on the phone here. I hope you made some progress. While I wouldn't agree with every one of your criticisms as being subject to easy solution, I think your own awareness of what goes on in Vietnam and your interest in measures to improve it are well worth careful examination. As you requested, I did pass a copy of your letter along to Representative McCloskey. I hope you had a good visit in Washington and that things can stabilize in Vietnam to the extent that some of your ideas could be tried out.

Thanks again for all you did working for me and for your own commitment to help that beleaguered country and people.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
